

Keenan Bloom-Rafael, RCST

Biodynamic Craniosacral Therapist, Corvallis, Oregon

Professional Experience

Biodynamic Craniosacral Therapist

Self-Employed | Boulder, Colorado & Corvallis, Oregon | 2021–Present

- Maintain a full clinical practice serving infants, children, and adults.
- Offer a free monthly infant craniosacral therapy clinic for families in the region.
- Manage client communication, scheduling, financial records, professional documentation, and day-to-day business operations.
- Completed additional training focused on biodynamic craniosacral work with infants in 2024
- Collaborate with individuals, families, and healthcare practitioners while maintaining clear professional boundaries and scope of practice.

Relevant strengths: Clinical practice management, professional communication, ethical decision-making, community service, interdisciplinary collaboration, and organizational leadership.

Business and Operations Director

Corvallis Healing Hub, LLC & Wellness for The People, LLC | Corvallis, Oregon | 2023–Present

- Manage a professional office building containing 17 offices for independent health and wellness practitioners.
- Coordinate leasing, practitioner communication, building operations, maintenance, finances, and administrative systems.
- Respond to operational challenges, resolve conflicts, and balance the needs of multiple practitioners and professional disciplines.
- Oversee the business and financial operations of my craniosacral practice and the practices of my partners, who work as a psychotherapist and acupuncturist.
- Independently manage the administrative, payroll, bookkeeping, tax-filing, and regulatory responsibilities of an S corporation, including preparation of the corporation's returns and filing of the owners' individual tax filings.

Relevant strengths: Business administration, financial oversight, tax and payroll management, regulatory compliance, systems development, independent problem-solving, conflict resolution, project management, collaboration, and long-term planning.

Event Coordinator, Communications Director, and Executive Assistant

Congregation Nevei Kodesh | Boulder, Colorado | 2018–2022

- Held several administrative and leadership roles within a nonprofit religious community.
- Coordinated events, communications, scheduling, and organizational projects.
- Worked closely with staff, community members, volunteers, and organizational leadership.
- Managed competing priorities, met deadlines, and considered the broader needs of the community.
- Developed strong personal and professional boundaries while working in a close-knit community environment.

Relevant strengths: Nonprofit administration, communications, event coordination, community engagement, discretion, and collaborative leadership.

Education and Professional Training:

B.A. in Theatre Arts, SUNY New Paltz - 2012

BCTA/NA Foundation Training, Scott Zamurut - 2021

Advanced Infant CST Training, Carol Gray - 2024